

STATE OF LOUISIANA
OFFICE OF FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS
BATON ROUGE, LOUISIANA

June 30, 2025

The Louisiana Office of Financial Institutions (LOFI) is responsible for the supervision and regulation of various institutions and entities that provide financial services to the citizens of the State of Louisiana. LOFI is divided into four divisions and has six field offices, in addition to its main office, located throughout the State of Louisiana. Three of the divisions are based on the general types of institutions regulated and include the following: Depository Institutions Division, Securities Division, and Non-depository Division. The fourth division is the Executive Administration Division. The table below depicts the number of entities regulated by each division for the fiscal years ending June 30, 2020 through June 30, 2025. The Depository Institutions Division is accredited by the Conference of State Bank Supervisors (CSBS) and the National Association of State Credit Union Supervisors (NASCUS), and a member of the American Council of State Savings Supervisors (ACSSS). The Non-depository Division's residential mortgage section is accredited by the Conference of State Bank Supervisors (CSBS) and the American Association of Residential Mortgage Regulators (AARMR).

DEPOSITORY DIVISION – This division is responsible for the chartering, supervision, and regulation of federally-insured state-chartered depository institutions and certain affiliated/related entities. These institutions include banks, savings banks, savings and loan association, their respective holding companies, credit unions, and independent trust companies. Questions regarding this division should be directed to Chief Examiner Jonathan Finley at (225) 925-4660 or ofila@ofi.la.gov.

In addition, this division is responsible for licensing and regulating the Business and Industrial Development Companies (BIDCOs) and Certified Louisiana Capital Companies (CAPCOs). The BIDCO program promotes the formation of business and industrial development corporations to help meet the financing assistance and management needs of business firms in the State. The CAPCO program provides tax credits to companies who invest in CAPCOs, which in turn make equity investments in qualifying Louisiana businesses. Questions regarding both programs should be directed to Deputy Chief Examiner Chris White at (225) 925-4660 or ofila@ofi.la.gov.

SECURITIES DIVISION - This division registers securities offerings for sale to the public and registers broker-dealers, agents, and investment advisors. Working in close cooperation with the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority and the Securities and Exchange Commission, this section also investigates and originates enforcement actions dealing with unfair practices, complaints, and violations of law regarding a variety of securities activities. Questions regarding this division should be directed to Deputy Chief Examiner Doug Buras at (225) 925-4660 or ofila@ofi.la.gov.

NON-DEPOSITORY DIVISION – This division is responsible for the licensing, supervision, and regulation of 11 programs. Prior to FY 90/91, the entities regulated included licensed lenders, notification filers, consumer loan brokers, and mortgage brokers and/or lenders. OFI was given responsibility in FY 92/93 for refund anticipation loan facilitators (repealed August 15, 1997), credit repair services, and self-help repossession agents. In FY 93/94, pawnbrokers, collection agencies (repealed August 15, 2003), and bond for deed escrow agencies were added. In FY 99/00, check cashers were added effective June 6, 2000. During FY 99/00, OFI began licensing residential mortgage lenders, brokers, and originators subject to the Residential Mortgage Lending Act. During FY 22/23, OFI began licensing persons, who engage in virtual currency business activities subject to the Virtual Currency Business Act. In FY 23/24, OFI created and published a registry of private education lenders. Over 14,000 entities are currently licensed by the Non-depository Division. Effective July 9, 2008, a new law provided that credit repair service organizations be regulated by the Louisiana Attorney General. Questions regarding this division should be directed to Chief Examiner Michelle Jeansonne at (225) 925-4660 or ofila@ofi.la.gov.

The following are brief descriptions of the types of entities supervised by this division:
